BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER

Recommends that bye law no 7 of the M Rules and Byelaws may be amended so as to enable the Sectional Officers to exercise the power re grant of leave to the Officials working under them

NOTES AND ORDERS

Item 1

The M. Comm says that the existing Rule empowers the Sectional Officers to grant leave of any kind admissible under the Rules to M Servants on superior service and privilege leave for a period not exceeding one month to Officials and Servants on Superior Service employed under them whose salary does not exceed Rs 30/-

2 He further says that the above Rules were sanctioned when the minimum salary of the peons was Rs 10/- and Subject - Amendment of the Rule No. 7 in Chapter VI of the Municipal Rules and Bye-laws so as to enlarge the power of sectional officers regarding grant of leave to officials working under them.

Under the existing Rule 7 in Chapter VI of the Municipal Rules and Bye-laws, page 43, the sectional officers are empowered to grant leave of any kind admissible under the rules to the Municipal servants in inferior service and privilege leave for a period not exceeding one month to officials and servants in superior service employed under them whose salary does not exceed Rs. 30/-.

The above rules were sanctioned when the minimum salary of the peons was Rs. 10/- and that of the offcials ranged between 20/- and 30/-. Consequent on the general revision of the scale pay of the non-gazetted staff of the Municipality, it has not been possible for the Sectional officers to exercise the power on account of the limit of Rs 30/- prescribed in the rules As a result, correspondence regarding leave etc., has increased in the Commissioner's Office unnecessarily.

With a view to overcoming this difficulty the proposal to fraise the limit was placed before the council at their meeting held on 5-4-54. After due considefation of all aspects, the Council resolved to amend the rules as below -

For the words " employed under him whose salary does not exceed Rs. 30/-" - substitute " whose time scale of pay pay does not progress beyond Rs. 40/-".

I enclose a copy of the resolution and request that orders of Government may be kindly obtained to the proposed change.

Yours faithfully,

(N Lakshman Rau).
Municipal Commissioner
